THE WEEKLY MEMO

*Improved with Exclusive New Features
for your convenience*

1. Don't tear off sheets! Retain them for future reference! The most outstanding feature of convenience of your WEEKLY MEMO is its system for retention of out-of-date pages. Because of the unique wire form used to mount the calendar pad, expired pages can be turned to the back of the pad and yet kept on the front of the cardboard. This eliminates completely the unruly, unsightly wad of sheets on the back (Fig. 2). The operation is simple: Just start the expired page down behind the special mounting wire bar (Fig. 3). Then put your hand under the pad, on top of the expired sheet and pull it down into position (Fig. 4). This WEEKLY MEMO will look as neat and orderly in December as it does in January!

(Fig. 2)

2. The small figures at the left of the date (Fig. 1) indicate the dates in that month on which the same day of the week occurs. Thus, each full weekly sheet shows in convenient form a complete monthly calendar. This feature is in addition to the small month in the upper right hand corner of the page.

(Fig. 3)

3. The small figures at the right of each date (Fig. 1) denote the day of the year. These are known as counting-house figures. They're useful in figuring maturity dates, storage periods, gestation periods, etc.

4. The die-cut Monthly Index at the bottom of the pad (Fig. 1) is an exclusive feature not available on any other calendar of this type. It is a true "fingertip index" that simplifies locating dates for future notations and for reference to past memoranda.

3RD WEEK

Never confuse motion with action.

|---------------------------|--|--|--|
| 7 14 21 28 | SUNDAY 21 Last Quarter 21 | Very strange! It wasn't easy, but Super Bowl III finally managed to come up on top of Anne Frank, Alice & Bob, Mrs. Baby, Frank & Mira, and an attractive restaurant where I couldn't wait! | JANUARY S M T W T F S 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 |
| 1 8 15 22 29 | MONDAY 22 22 | At Junior Achievement I picked up two more trivets, but this time got them from an auction. However, my new job at H & R Block turned out to be the winner of the day as I started out a real success! | |
| 2 9 16 23 30 | TUESDAY 23 23 | Had a typical backwards day: missing the Easy Rider and sitting for Cindi Cooper (don't be confused, since I saw Barbara Cooper later in the day); getting brushed off by Lenora, etc., etc. To make it sweet, we left class early. | |
| 3 10 17 24 31 | WEDNESDAY 24 24 | Worked at H & R Block from 9 a.m. to 2:30 and handed Mrs. Burke student placement paper to fill out. Meanwhile, what did Lenora do? She took another guy out to the L.A. Kings hockey game on her last Y. M. C. A. appearance of the year. | |
| 4 11 18 25 | THURSDAY 25 25 | On final day of semester, I delivered special mail out to Adult Ed office to Jan McKinley, who later asked me to give it to the mail room. | |
| 5 12 19 26 | FRIDAY 26 26 | I tried so hard to end the last R.O.P. semester day on a sweet note, by saying good-bye to Barbara Cooper for a while, but never made it. | |

| 2 9 16 23 | FRIDAY 9 | 40 | Biggest surprise of day was tickets to Lakers-Cavaliers game, where L.A. won 106-103. At the game, Mom wore her brand new brown boots she picked up from J.C. Penney one day ago. | |

Very quickly, I got two more orders on first aid kits to sub-total it to rise. Unfortunately, I had to wait almost two hours before I could start work.

| 4 18 25 | SUNDAY 18 | Thanks to an early morning puddle of rain, this has to be the most boring day of the year. | MARCH S M T W T F S 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 |
| 5 19 26 | MONDAY 19 | Said Laurel Best, "Marty, I would like to see you try out for tutoring tomorrow. Someone will get to help you in accounting." | |
| 6 20 27 | TUESDAY 20 Spring Begins 79 | Finally made my decision to go to the banquet this Saturday night when I turned the money in to Anne Burke. On the guest list: my cousin Tony. Also had a tutor help me in accounting this morning, but decided that I had enough of that one guy. | |
| 7 21 28 | WEDNESDAY 21 Last Quarter 80 | His only picked up that College Typewriting book that I wanted for almost a year. Hearing that it might rain, I decided to buy that new book. | |
| 1 22 29 | THURSDAY 22 | Went to Loara High School instead of Cypress College, ran into Kelly Withana, Dana Huber and Karen Scott — and all three girls wished me a Happy Birthday (I already!), which is tomorrow, of course! | |
| 2 23 30 | FRIDAY 23 | Oh, Barbara (not Julie), thank you for making my 19th birthday a real success with that card! Believe it or not, I ran into a flock of waitresses (all of them pretty) who sang "Happy Birthday" to me at Jefe's. They made my day. | |
| 3 24 31 | SATURDAY 24 | We were supposed to be attending an H & K Book Banquet tonight, but lost it all when 1.) we could not find the place, and 2.) ended up with a flat. We all went to the Royal Peacock instead. Earlier in the day, I got a new transistor radio at Erea Mall. | 12TH WEEK |

| 5 12 19 26 | MONDAY 26 | This is a day for Egypt, Israel and me to remember: the peace treaty was signed by both foreign countries; and I ended up with back- to-back rides with Barbie Doll, running into Bar- bara Schuman and Jan McKinley, and my clerical stuff! | |
| 6 13 20 27 | TUESDAY 27 New Moon | | |
| 7 14 21 28 | WEDNESDAY 28 | Bad news for Sierra Park Center tourists: Barbie Doll is leaving the area next week so that she will drive around Mountain Valley. And to make it worse, the accounting test I took today was the "Pillars of the Faith." | |
| 8 15 22 29 | THURSDAY 29 | Busy day for me: bought accounting practice set and add- ing machine back at Rockport. Then ranged myself with Accountants, Kathy Gray's, 45 line, 45A line, and 41 line to Hanger, where I bought gifts for parents, niece, and myself. Yea, I saw Barbara there! | |

What a day, and how much to do! I was going to be on my way towards Disneyland for Clerical Office Training, but Mom asked me to stay in Kathy's class for social skills. That's about the sixth time I tried to say goodbye to Mom and Dad and they said "Wait!"

What a shame! I set a clerical test back from Expung from my book while at R.O.P. office.

TUESDAY

121

It was catch-up time on the accounting class because I hadn't understood anything that we did in Chapter 5, and I obviously thought that the text was ~~next~~ to be a Test item.

WEDNESDAY

122

Wow! I'm back! The account of our hard work that it will be a great mile! Remember, I've started to go from the same place.

THURSDAY

First Quarter 123

Charles to a Christian & Abolition Meeting. I was out to Water Good & Pender! But the biggest news of the day was an expression of love in my recollecting class. Despite all the several days past I hid in Chapter 14.

FRIDAY

Another appointment according to Betty. She wants me to see Debbie next ~~Monday~~ so that she can help me find a summer job. I remember who was a passenger on the Carry Rider the morning Betty died.

 and would like to hear from you soon.
 I hope you are well and happy.

| THURSDAY | 31 | 151 | | Compare my day with Mike's. As far as I'm concerned, start with Joe McKinley and George Keenan, and end up with Jane Pearson and Martha Corrington! | FRIDAY | 1 | 152 | | English test today and loves one #1! Pops! Noretta drops me from her R.O.P. typing class because I had not called that place in a week or so! That meant saying good-bye to Lora who used to be a telephone operator, and now it's my turn to challenge the Barbarians. Beware! If you call Kuno, Nevada on any phone line - you might be asked by Barb- ara Chaim for a certain phone number. We went to Adrian's home tonight, and so did Stephanie, who told me that Barbara, our cousin, is a PBXer! also saw Fernie, | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |

As soon as Mom picked me up on Harbor Blvd. Today, she told me to get ready to go to an Angels game, which didn't happen, because David Kay was ready to pick tickets up. Winter Begins 356

After a string of no moon in our house, I was sure glad to get rid of them! Why? I saw a cow her driver named Mander (or it might be Mander), who was telling me about the moon and how it was a big ball of fire, but it was a big ball of fire

THE METRIC SYSTEM

The United States is virtually alone in a world that measures by the simpler Metric System. Politically and economically it cannot remain isolated, clinging to the archaic inch-pound system of measurements. The conversion is inevitable. To prepare for a better understanding of the Metric System the following primer information will be helpful.

DEFINITION OF COMMON UNITS

| UNITS OF LENGTH | UNITS OF VOLUME | UNITS OF MASS OR WEIGHT |
|-----------------|--------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| Millimeter (mm) | Liter (l) | Kilogram |
| Centimeter (cm) | Milliliters (ml) | Gram |
| Meter (m) | Cubic Centimeters (cm ³) | |
| Kilometer (km) | Cubic Millimeters (mm ³) | |
| | Cubic Meter (m ³) | |

To know the commonly used units in the Metric System it is only necessary to memorize:

| | | |
|---------------------|---|------------------|
| 10 Millimeters (mm) | — | 1 Centimeter (c) |
| 100 Centimeters | — | 1 Meter (m) |
| 1000 Meters | — | 1 Kilometer (km) |
| 1000 Grams (g) | — | 1 Kilogram (kg) |
| 1000 Kilograms | — | 1 Metric Ton (t) |
| 1000 Milliliters | — | 1 Liter (l) |

The only numbers involved in the relation of the common metric units are 10, 100 and 1000.
